

Come join us at the Folsom Quilt & Fiber Guild's 37th annual show!

March 3 – 5, 2023

10:00 to 4:00 daily, $10.00 entry.

The Folsom Guild's annual show reflects its long and rich history in the Folsom area, boasting a strong active membership comprised of highly talented quilters and fiber artists, many of whom are award winners at the local, state and national levels. Our guild's environment encourages new members at all levels, including new quilters, to join our active group as we learn and grow as quilters and fiber artists together.

In addition to all of the beautiful quilts and fiber items on display, Karen's Bakery caters a lunch each day that mirrors the fine food that is served at its popular Folsom restaurant.

Also featured at our show is the vendor mall packed with must-have quilt and sewing supplies and other treasures, as well as our popular boutique packed with a vast array of items to tempt our visitors.

The City of Folsom itself is a picturesque, charming, and active slice of California's gold rush past, featuring great restaurants, shops and museums. There is much to see and enjoy in the area! Plan extra time to explore this unique historical gem!

Attached to this announcement, we have provided a pdf file of the Folsom City brochure that highlights the city's points of interest, restaurants, museums. Moreover, we have included in the two pdf documents, suggestions for places to stay close by so that you can enjoy the show and Folsom at your leisure.

If you have a large group, you may wish to consider chartering transportation. We offer group discounts and preferred admittance to the show for your group. Visit our website for more information about the show itself, as well as to arrange for payment and early entry admittance for your group. www.folsomquilt.org.

We look forward to hosting you at our show!
